Wax On, Wax Off

Hey Handy Andy, we need the donated playhouse assembled, like, now! WWJD? He'd pitch in and do his part. Granted he was a carpenter but you see where we're going with this. Do it . . . man. Call Stephanie Musto at 754-6861.

“What you talkin’ about Willis?”

Willis talkin’ about the race. This 80's themed run/walk will feature music by Steve FM, medals and a t-shirt. Gag me with a spoon! To register, fill out the brochure and mail or go to www.strictlyrunning.com. Questions? Contact Erin at eringalloway1@bellsouth.net

- * Help the Cause: pick up race brochures in office and set out a stack at your business. Do it for the kids . . . Word.

Deadlines & Upcoming Events

Faculty Projects

For the newbies, this is a chance for your child to spend some special time with his/her teacher in a small group. Check it out!

- * Mrs. Boger & Mrs. Taylor are planning to take a few lucky pre-schoolers to CiCi's Pizza and a movie!
- * Mrs Ayers is headed to Edventure with some second graders to climb Eddie and explore!
- * Mrs. Maddock & Ms. Hudson will be performing a mad science experiment by dissecting Jaws (aka Sharks). Yikes! “We're gonna need a bigger boat”.

So, bid away at the auction on these fantastic experiences!

Auction Canvases

Want to preserve your child's handprint but not necessarily on the window? Check out the pre-school canvases at the auction.

The second graders have painted beautiful crosses on their canvases. It is a good remembrance of the sacraments they'll be receiving this year!

Did you know that the South Carolina state butterfly is the tiger swallowtail? Mrs. Treadway's class has painted a beautiful one! Get it at the auction!

Name that 80's movie: “What's a happenin' hotstuff ”.

Last week's quote was from “Footloose”
