TURN IN YOUR Auction Drawing Tix STUBS!

Each family should have turned in 2 stubs that will go into the drawing on Saturday. At least 15 families have paid for the tickets but have not turned in the stubs. Seriously people. Do you want to win or what?

Classroom Auction Items: The projects are hanging out in the SJN hallways. Check them out!

*Consider bidding on an item with a friend and sharing the booty!

Decorations: It's not too late to help transform the gym. Show up anytime Friday, as in tomorrow!

Schedule of Events

6PM - Doors open

6-8:30PM - Silent Auction

8:45-10:45PM - Live Auction

10PM - Checkout opens: cash, check, credit cards and vital organs are accepted

NEW Silent Auction opportunity - the last 30 minutes of the room being open, any items that do not have a bid, will be visited by auction fairies that will mark the starting bid down to encourage bidding - be on the look out for these extra special deals!

Attire: Come as you are – or better yet, dress the part. Just ask yourself, WWJD? He'd totally be sporting a mullet and parachute pants. He was a team player.

Kids' Spirit Week

Tomorrow the students can come to school dressed in 80's fashion. Let loose, go crazy, wear those leg warmers like you own 'em. Just adhere to the TAG day regulations and it's all good!

Ticket Parties

Don't forget to sign up asap at the auction. Kids aren't the only ones allowed to have some fun.

1. Father-Daughter Dance
2. Mother-Son Bowling
3. Couple's Hoe-down
4. Belles W/Out Beaus

SJN Race

What a success! Lots of exercise, fun and spandex. A big shout out to Erin Galloway and Jennifer Pankau for making it seamless. Start training for next year Karate Kid.

Name that 80's movie: “Your looks are kinda pretty when your face isn't screwing it up”.
